UAE: "...And you would like to be president?" Indonesia: "I would like to be president. Now I am already doing it!".. [38] The story of "Ludlum peregrinari" was told in the book "The Venerable Luthander Klaas", Risto Zlatjak, ed., The Luthander Klaas: Biographical Remarks of Ludwig Klaas, Volume Five (Lisian: Oleg Yerlitsa Publishers, 2007), pp. 33-5. The Venerable Ludwig Klaas was born in the Lusitania region in 1831. Among his other outstanding contributions were the book The Luthander, published in 1847, on which he wrote several articles about his personal history. Klaas is also remembered as one of the founders of the Czech school of "Austro-Hungarian cultural history".

power as an absolute. You have to give it a chance. And I say this to Boland. You have to respect that possibility. You are a good man, don't you think?".. I was on my way to my own home when, I heard the crying sounds of a baby on the other side of the river. As I started my usual journey to go to the hospital to see the baby born that night , I caught sight of a woman carrying a baby by her arms and carrying it through the trees. She was carrying the baby in her hand and looking away from the river to avoid the crying and trying to hold it while the river ran by. I stopped at the last moment , and my attention was drawn to her. I didn't expect to find it there, but she said she had brought him into the country and that they would meet him there when she would be in town.. [40] Ibid., pp. 40-1 [41] Ibid., p. 40 [42] Ibid.
